1. OVERVIEW

ESC-tension includes an activity (O3-A1) aimed at customizing the project and the technological standards of the ESC for the national contexts, not only from a linguistic point of view, but also - and most importantly -, from a functional and cultural perspective.

The “Profiling Tool” has been developed within the project in order to describe the HEI as-is scenario concerning cards and services, in view of the ESC Extension and Adoption.

Section B of this tool is entirely addressed to the definition of the as-is scenario of each National Context.

A survey has been created for internal use and shared among the consortium partners in order to harmonize the tools developed within the project in relation to the specificity of each country and their respectively contexts. Each of them has carried out this activity filling in the survey based on their national experiences.

The aims of this survey were the following:

- to provide each country represented within the ESC-tension project with a national context description according to the framework identified in section B of the Profiling Tool, by replying to those questions which are independent from the HEI specificity;
- to customize the questions in section B of the Profiling Tool, when needed, towards the harmonization with the single countries for which the ESC-tension national platform will be implemented;
- to detect further details concerning the specificity of the national contexts which are relevant for the ESC adoption, if any, so that this information is contained in the Profiling Tool of each national ESC-tension platform as well;
- to identify further questions to be added to section B of the national Profiling Tool in order to customize the analysis to the local contexts.

The structure of the survey is described in section 2 of this document, specifically created for this purpose.

Following the experimentation for internal use for the creation of the local platforms, this survey will be made available on the ESC-tension platform. This will guarantee the future possibility of contextualizing the Profiling

Tool also for other countries currently not represented within the project partnership, with a view to future expansion.

In section 3 of the document, the compilation of the survey carried out by each project partner is reported in detail. It will subsequently be used to realize the local ESC-tension platforms taking into account the context of each represented country.

Finally, the customisation emerged from the survey is detailed in section 4.

Welcome to the National Context survey for the ESC-tension customization

ESC-tension includes one activity (O3-A1) aimed at customizing the project and the technological standards of the ESC for the national contexts, not only from a linguistic point of view but also, and most importantly, from a functional and cultural perspective.

Therefore, each partner should carry out this activity based on their national experiences, in order to harmonize the tools developed within the project with the specificity of the countries and their contexts.

Organization & administration Technical & technological aspects

The Profiling Tool is the innovative tool developed within the project with the goal of the HEI "as-is" scenario description concerning cards and the services, in view of the ESC Extension and Adoption.

Section B of this tool is entirely addressed to the definition of the as-is scenario of each National Context.

The aims of this survey are:

- To provide each country represented within the ESC-tension project with a national context description according to the framework identified in section B of the Profiling Tool, by replying to those questions which are independent from the HEI specificity;
- To customize the questions in section B of the Profiling Tool, when needed, towards the harmonization with the single countries for which the ESC-tension national platform will be implemented;
- Detect further details concerning the national contexts specificity which are relevant for the ESC adoption, if any, so that this information is contained in the Profiling Tool of each national ESC-tension platform as well;
- Identify further questions to add to section B of the national Profiling Tools in order to customize the analysis to the local contexts.

The main content area contains the following text:

Q7. Please provide further details about the specificity of your national context that you find relevant for the ESC adoption (both in English and in the national language). These will be automatically reported in the Profiling Tool of your national ESC-tension platform. In particular, you can evaluate your national context against these topics:

- digital ESC register (ESC-R) allowing and facilitating interaction between HEI and students
- data exchange formats and types, terms of use and technical requirements resulting from the use of the ESC-R
- identification and analysis of risks associated with ESC-R (technological risks of data security)
- possible IT risk control and mitigation measures
- adaptation to GDPR regulations

EN- In Poland, the campus card, in addition to its primary purposes, is also used to certify entitlement to reduced travel fares on public transport (50%), to obtain discounts on the purchase of various goods and services, if such are offered by external entities (e.g. cinemas, theatres). The entitlement is confirmed by the presentation of the campus card by its holder. Optionally, students can receive a mobile campus card, i.e. a campus card on their mobile phones. Poświadczenie uprawnień następuje na drodze okazania legitymacji przez jej właściciela. Opcjonalnie, student może otrzymać mLegitymację studencką czyli legitymację studencką w telefonie. Ten dokument można aktywować poprzez kod QR oraz kod aktywacyjny otrzymany na uczelni pod warunkiem, że uczelnia przystąpi w ogóle do programu Ministerstwa Cyfryzacji.

Please provide further details about the specificity of your national context that you find relevant for the ESC adoption

EN- The national context is variable in Spain. There is a national regulation (organic law on Universities), regional normative developments (autonomic laws of universities) and regulations of each university, since they are autonomous bodies (statutes of universities).

In addition, at the moment, national legislation is in the process of being changed and a new law on Universities is being debated in Parliament, one of whose main lines is progress in digitalization. Among the variety of universities, some are linked to the ESC project, such as the UMA, whose identification and registration system includes an option for transferring data to the ESC project. The data that is transferred are the ID code of the UMA and the email. This assignment allows the UMA mobile application to display the university card. But universities that are not in ESC can use other systems, formats and technologies. All the process is under the data protection regulations.

SPA - El contexto nacional es variable en España. Existe una regulación nacional (leyes orgánicas de Universidades), desarrollos normativos regionales (leyes autonómicas de universidades) y normativa propia de cada universidad, ya que se trata de organismos autónomos (estatutos de las universidades).

Además, en estos momentos, la legislación nacional está en proceso de cambio y se está debatiendo en el Parlamento una nueva ley de Universidades, una de cuyas líneas maestras es el avance en la digitalización. Dentro de la variedad de universidades, algunas están vinculadas al proyecto ESC, como la UMA, cuyo sistema de identificación y registro incluye una opción para la cesión de datos al proyecto ESC. Los datos que se ceden son el código ID de la UMA y el correo electrónico. Esta cesión permite que la aplicación móvil de la UMA despliegue el carnet universitario. Pero las universidades que no están en ESC pueden usar otros sistemas, formatos y tecnologías. Todo el mecanismo está sujeto a la LOPDP.

EN – The Problem already mentioned in the presentation: we have a large number of institutions in Germany which have limited or no control over their card system. This means that integration the ESC will be either almost impossible or might be very expensive for them.

A question would be whether the HEI has full control or a company is involved? and if it is, which on.

DEU – Das schon beschriebene Problem: man hat eine grosse Anzahl von Institutionen mit begrenzter oder auch keiner Kontrolle ihres Kartensystems. Das bedeutet, dass die Integration mit der ESC fast unmöglich oder ganz teuer für sie sein könnte. Die Frage wäre, entweder die Institution die totale Kontrolle darüber hat oder eine weitere Firma beteiligt ist. Und wenn die Antwort ja ist, soll man dann angeben, welche Firma ist.

Q1- Question B.1	Is there a National Entity responsible for issuing the campus cards?

- Does question B.1 of the Profiling Tool have a unique answer in your national context?
Yes
- Please describe your national context in reply to question B.1 of the Profiling Tool

Q2- Question B.2	Is there a National Entity responsible for campus card regulations and/or recommendations?

- Does question B.2 of the Profiling Tool have a unique answer in your national context?
Yes
In Ireland there is no National Entity responsible for Campus Cards standards: each HEI is in charge of this process. The Central Applications Office (CAO) is responsible for processing centrally, applications for undergraduate courses in Irish Higher Education Institutions (HEIs). Each applicant (student) is provided with a unique CAO 8-digit application number. This is the number then used for applications to HEIs. It is also often used by HEIs as the unique student ID number for the issuing of the campus card. However, there is no requirement or regulation to use this number and this it at the sole discretion of each HEI.

Q7	Please provide further details about the specificity of your national context that you find relevant for the ESC adoption

EN: In Portugal it is possible to implement ESC but there are concerns related to GDPR, more precisely with the (need of) exchange of Student data through the ESC Router. In a general way, Portuguese Higher Education Institutions are responsible for managing the Student Support services such as food service and accommodation. Therefore, the access to the services may include identification tools for the students which are different from the university campus cards. The need of an hologram to be stamped in the physical card can be a barrier. In fact, these holograms are produced in France and there is a need to buy this materials to a specific French company.

PT: Em Portugal, a implementação do ESC é possível mas existem preocupações relacionadas com RGPD, mais precisamente com a necessidade de partilha de dados de estudantes através do ESC Router. De uma forma genérica, as Instituições de Ensino Superior portuguesas são responsáveis pela gestão dos serviços acedidos através do cartão, tais como cantinas e dormitórios. O acesso a alguns destes serviços não é realizado por via de cartão. A necessidade de utilização de um holograma que deverá ser colado no cartão poderá ser um obstáculo ao sucesso do ESC. Na verdade, estes hologramas são produzidos em França e é necessária a compra destes materiais a uma companhia francesa.

4. CHANGES TO BE APPLIED TO THE NATIONAL PROFILING TOOLS

In light of the evidences emerged from the survey, some customisation has to be applied to the different versions of the Profiling Tool.

Specifically, the customisation actions are the following:

1. The word 'regional' will be added to questions QB1, QB2, QB3, QB4, QB5 in all versions of the Profiling Tool. Therefore, the mentioned questions would be as below:
 - QB1: Is there a National/Regional Entity responsible for issuing the campus cards?
 - QB2: Is there a National/Regional Entity responsible for campus card regulations and/or recommendations?
 - QB3: Is your campus card required to comply with national/regional regulations?
 - QB4: Do national/regional regulations make it mandatory to use a particular technology/design on the campus card?
 - QB5: Are there specific national/regional regulations pertaining to cards and identification for Erasmus Students?
2. Questions QB1, QB2, QB3, QB4 and QB5 will be removed from the Italian version of the Profiling Tool, because the answers would be unique for the entire national context. Due to this reason, there is no need to ask those mentioned questions. Instead, the explanations regarding the Italian context will be added as explained in paragraph 3.A. In addition to that, a few more specifications will be added to the Italian Profiling Tool, as in Q7 and Q8.
3. Questions QB1, QB2, QB3, QB4, QB5 and QB6 will be removed from the Polish version of the Profiling Tool, because the answer would be unique for the entire national context. Due to this reason, there is no need to ask those mentioned questions. Instead, the explanations regarding the Polish context will be added as explained in paragraph 3.C.
4. Questions QB3, QB4, QB5 and QB6 will be removed from the German version of the Profiling Tool, because the answer would be unique for the entire national context. Due to this reason, there is no need to ask those mentioned questions. Instead, the explanations regarding the German context will be added as explained in paragraph 3.E.
